Campus Ministry Drops 'Christ' From Name...

7/21/11

From Fox News:

One of the nation's most prominent Christian ministries has decided to take Christ out of its name – a move that has generated cries of political correctness from within the evangelical community.

Campus Crusade for Christ International announced this week that it will change the name of its U.S. Operations to “Cru” in early 2012.

“We felt like our name was getting in the way of accomplishing our mission,” said Steve Sellers, the vice president for Campus Crusade, noting that the ministry will still be committed to “proclaiming Christ around the world.”

Sellers said researchers found that 9 percent of Christians and 20 percent of non-Christians were alienated by the name Campus Crusade for Christ.

The organization was founded in 1951 by Bill and Vonette Bright and today has 25,000 staff members serving in 191 countries. Bright died in 2003, but his widow offered support for the name change in a video posted online.

What? I am ALL for reaching out to people with less "Christianese" language and cliches - but to remove CHRIST from your ministry name - ludicrous!

Never should we be ashamed of Jesus - Yeshua - Christ... never!

If it offends some - so what.

Now, we are not affiliated with CRU as they call themselves.. so we will let God judge this matter - but I must stand up and say that the name JESUS is nothing to be ashamed of...

We are to preach the Kingdom of God despite the afflictions, despite the ridicules, and despite the danger it may bring!

"JESUS - I am not ashamed. Your name will be lifted up in my house, and YOU will draw all men unto yourself! Give us more boldness my Lord, boldness for your precious names sake!"
